THE MANIFESTO

"We must move forward, not backward; upward, not forward; and always twirling, twirling, twirling towards freedom!

Issue 13 Jun 24

Foreword

In the UK we are finally doing that thing again where everyone makes a bit scene of putting pieces of paper in boxes and calling it democracy.

Several parties have manifestos out and some of their policies aren't fascist!

But what about what we think?

Well, you probably know if you've been reading this last year, but to get in on the game, here is OUR manifesto:

Society and Culture

DANGER TO SOCIETY

We here at ATACK solemnly pledge that if elected (hell, even if we aren't elected) we will prove to be the ultimate dangers to society.

It is no longer enough for us to simply be threats to a sane world. The time for threats is over. We must now take action to erode, undermine and eradicate the 'moral' bedrock which permits the existence of coercive hierarchy in all its forms. We will not merely reform or change society, we will end it.

Half of you have spent the best part of the past 40 years telling us it doesn't exist anyway so we're sure you won't mind.

Defence

The Ministry of Defence to be renamed to the Ministry of War and Exploitation, so as to encourage a tradition of honesty and openness.

Education

ATACK recognises that the current schooling system largely operates as a form of unpaid childcare in order to enable the parents of children to remain productive.

Until that state of affairs can be changed we will therefore refocus the schooling system. Teachers will be expected to provide children with the tools required to study (focusing on literacy, media studies and epistemology). Once a thorough grounding in these areas has been achieved, children will be free to choose their own curricula and learning objectives.

Further education (college and universities) will be free for anyone who needs them. This will be funded through high levels of taxation on all newspapers, private broadcasters and social media companies.

Y'all fucked it up, you can pay to fix it.

Healthcare

Doctors are cops. ACAB includes the medical police. the notion of "healthy" just legitimises an unbalanced relationship between doctors and patients, and forces people to adhere to a racist, fatphobic, and disableist standard or else be Othered by the system that is meant to make our lives better.

This isn't to say that the solution is to abolish all healthcare models - we aren't (all) primitivists - but we need to work to abolish the unequal power relationships between doctor and patient; nurse and doctor; and healthcare worker and capital/the state. trans people shouldn't have to prove insanity to access medical care, and people of colour shouldn't be treated with suspicion by medical institutions. we would get rid of all politicians, and use the money we save on their salaries to give every trans person a lifetime supply of HRT and synth music.

nobody knows what you need better than you do! decriminalise bodily autonomy! end medical brutality!

Crime

Political parties harp on endlessly about crime rates and street gangs, without the strength of will and clarity of vision to abolish either. So we will do what every government has failed to do so far; we will successfully end crime. The mechanism is simple; simply abolish laws.

The legal system is a sham, a tool by the State to capture and construct our sense of right and wrong. In the same breath comes "do not murder!" and "pay your taxes!", "do not steal!" and "starve in the streets!" This is obviously an absurd situation, so we propose doing away with it all.

This would have the excellent side-effect of dealing with the largest gang that exists on our streets. They run around, harrassing, kidnapping and killing people with impunity, dressed in their absurd uniforms. Of course, we're talking about the police. And some will cry: "But without the police, who will stop a strange man from dragging you into his van and locking you in a room?" as if this isn't the normalised state of affairs we live under now.

The police and the courts are framed as the solution to a problem that they actually exist to mask, and indeed enact: the routine exploitation of millions under threat of violence.

Let's be done with it.

Royalty

Obviously the monarchy will be abolished in full.

ATACK will return all remaining assets of the Crown which were taken as the wages of colonialist violence to their countries of origin. Whilst we're at it we'll also just leave the doors of the British museum unlocked overnight. Wink wink.

As all existent adult royals are clearly incapable of being successfully reintegrated into society they will be allowed to claim benefits alongside everyone else who can't work. We'll even send them over some stacks of papers to sign at regular intervals so they feel they are still involved in the process.

All Other Policies

If the manifesto seems to be missing some key areas don't worry, we promise we've thought about them.

Yes, even that. It's weird you would think about it, but we're professionals, we know what we're doing.

We've also decided that we're simply not going to be prescriptive on it.

We trust you to figure it out.

Don't sweat it.

You got this.

HEY!

You.

Yeah, you.

You look like you've got something to say.

Come shout it with us.

ATACK is an electronically published zine we encourage everyone to save, send, share, print, promote, and propagate at will.

We will never own up to distributing it.

Yell any submissions to atackuk@proton.me

Or at people in the street but we can't promise to publish those.
